BeeOne services ethical chart

- Pricing transparency: What you hear is what you get. We don't have hidden charges and we don't make 50's as one minute.
- Billing transparency: The end user can see the billing methodology in all merchandising material so that he can calculate himself his bill. Looking at our product flyers, posters and websites will give the end user all the cost components we apply in our calling card services. Consumers can calculate the cost of their calls in advance with any of our products.
